

We re-distributed the missions for each of us. I will be never responsible for Django part. So I'm working on the UI part and final presentation. Specifically, I did not do too much for this project 3. However, I will be more focus on final project and the powerpoint at the end of this semester.